

BASIS COMPLAINTS POLICY

1.0 Introduction

1.1 Basis is committed to providing the best possible service to the organisations and individuals with whom we work, and we try to listen to our members and our users. We acknowledge, however, that there are occasions when people may not be happy with some aspects of our provision. This Policy exists to make it easier for you to tell us when you are unhappy, or indeed when you have any comment to make about Basis. All complaints will be taken seriously and we will treat you with respect and consideration throughout the complaints process.

2.0 Informal Complaints

2.1 You can make your complaint to the member of staff concerned or to their manager. Any worker will be able to inform you of the person most suitable to approach, or if this is uncomfortable or inappropriate, please contact our Chief Executive Officer directly. If your complaint is regarding the Chief Executive Officer please contact the Chair of Trustees.

2.2 Complaints can be made in person, by telephone, by e-mail or in writing or a message can be left in the relevant box in the drop in. We aim to listen to the complaint, investigate it and respond with our findings, including, where possible, a solution to the complaint. Although we will endeavour to deal with complaints promptly, particularly where the complaint is regarding a safeguarding risk for a service user, there will be occasions when this may not be possible (for example during holiday periods). If there will be a delay in responding to your complaint you will be told, and we will try to respond as quickly as possible, either verbally or in writing. If you remain dissatisfied with us or with our response you should use the formal procedure outlined below.

3.0 What should I do to make a formal complaint?

3.1 You may use the formal complaints procedure at any time. You do not have to complain informally first if you believe that your complaint is too serious for that approach.

3.2 Attached to this policy you will find our complaints form. If you prefer, you may write a letter instead. You should post or hand deliver your complaint to Basis, clearly marking the envelope "Private and Confidential, for the attention of the Operations Manager" (if your complaint involves the Operations Manager or CEO, you may address it to the Chair of Trustees).

4.0 What will happen after I complain?

4.1 Basis will normally aim to acknowledge receipt of your formal complaint within 10 working days; this will be done by letter, so it is important that you provide us with your correct postal address. This letter will also tell you what steps will be taken to investigate your complaint. We normally ask you to meet with us to discuss the problem (in which case you are welcome to be accompanied by a person of your choice from outside Basis). If your complaint is about a member of staff, it will be passed immediately to the Operations

Manager or CEO. We will write to tell you that this has been done and to explain that our internal investigation process has begun. We aim to resolve all complaints quickly and to keep you informed throughout the process. You will receive a full written response usually within 28 days; if there will be any further delay, you will be informed. This letter will include information on what to do if you are still dissatisfied.

5.0 Will my complaint be confidential?

5.1 Your complaint may be seen by managers, the CEO or Trustees of Basis as part of the investigation process but we will make every effort to safeguard your privacy. You should be aware, however, that if your complaint is specifically about a member of staff or a trustee of Basis, it will be necessary for that person to be told that a complaint has been received against him / her to allow the investigation to proceed.

5.2 We may also be obliged to disclose information if an allegation relates to Safeguarding issues or any criminal activity. We will inform you if this is the case.

6.0 What if I am still unhappy – can I appeal?

6.1 You can appeal if you are unhappy about any aspect of the formal procedure outlined above, including the final response. If you wish to appeal, you should inform us in writing. Again, you can obtain assistance with this as explained above. You should post or deliver your letter to Basis, marking the envelope “Private and Confidential: for the attention of the CEO” if your appeal relates to Basis or some aspects of its services OR “Private and Confidential: for the attention of the Chair of Trustees” if your appeal relates to a staff issue or a response to a formal investigation that you are unhappy with.

7.0 What will happen if I appeal?

7.1 You will receive written acknowledgement of your appeal usually within 10 working days, along with information as to when and how it will be dealt with. A panel (consisting of three Trustees) will normally be formed to consider your appeal. You may attend this meeting (bringing a person of your choice from outside Basis, if you wish to). Alternatively, you can make written comments if you would prefer not to attend the meeting. Your appeal and the original complaint will be considered in detail, and you will receive a written response within 10 working days of the hearing. Basis will make every effort to comply with the decision or recommendations of the Appeals Panel.

7.2 The appeal stage is the final stage of this procedure.

8.0 Feedback

8.1 Basis welcomes all comments and suggestions, and seriously considers and where appropriate and possible tries to implement the feedback into its working practices.

8.2 To provide feedback please write to us, telephone, email, post or in person.

9.0 Documentation by Basis

9.1 All information relating to complaints will be held within Basis for a minimum period of 7 years, taking into account the above mentioned confidentiality procedures.
